Bank Various Schemes and Financial Planning

Date: 9/12/2021

Time: 4.30 pm

Speaker: Shri. Sharadji Shamkant Athale (ABM Janata Sahakari Bank)

Objective of the Program:

1. Considering banks and various schemes of banks,
2. Think about what your meaning and future financial planning should look like

Details of the Programme:-

MES Night College of Arts and Commerce held a special session program on "Various Bank Schemes and Financial Planning" for its teaching and non-teaching staff on December 9, 2021, at 4:30 PM sharp. College Principal Dr. Atul Kulkarni delivered the introductory remarks. Professor Bhushan Biradar moderated the program, and keynote speaker Shri. Sharadji Athale offered his insights. Professor Amardeep Gurme provided a brief introduction before the speakers began their presentations.

During the session, Mr. Sharadji Athle provided teachers and non-teaching staff with comprehensive guidance on banking systems, financial planning, and various bank schemes. He covered the fundamentals of bank operations, departmental structures within banks, the distinction between cooperative and commercial banks, and government-introduced schemes relevant to the current scenario. Additionally, he discussed the latest features and services offered by cooperative banks.

The Speaker explained that if the specified investment advice is followed, an individual may reconcile information about the interest rate, pros, and cons of investing in the banking sector. However, considering their personal investment style and the bank's current challenges is advisable. It was also recommended by the speaker to invest in well-chosen mutual funds and the stock market for better returns. The session concluded with a discussion on bank loans, covering essential documents and deadlines for obtaining them.

Program Outcomes-

1. Attendance gained the knowledge about how the banking sector works works and what schemes are available in the bank for common people.
2. From this program teachers and non-teaching staff got full information about their own financial situation and what kind of investment should be made as a power path for future problems.
