

Maharashtra Education Society
MES Night College of Arts and Commerce
Karve Road, Pune-411004

Constitution Day

Date: 26 November 2022

Time: 5.00 to 6.00

Objectives of the Programme:

1. To introduce the students with the Constitution.
2. To inform the students about the use of principles of the constitution while acting in the society.
3. To inform the students about democracy which works on and only on constitutional principles in India.
4. To encourage students to read the Constitution as a book.

Format and Proceedings of the Program

MES Night College of Arts and Commerce held a Constitution Day program on November 26, 2022, from 5:00 PM to 6:00 PM. Dr. Atul Kulkarni, the Guest Speaker and the Principal, informed the students about the principles of the Constitution and their contemporary relevance. He also shared his insights on how quality and equality of opportunity are enshrined in the Constitution. The students were encouraged to read and understand the Constitution.

Mr. Ramdas Bade read the preamble of the Constitution, and Mr. Bhushan Biradar presided over the program. Faculty, non-teaching staff, and students of the college attended the event.

Conclusion:

1. Students were introduced with the concept of constitution.
2. Students realized the importance of using the principle of constitution while acting in the society.
3. The students gained knowledge of how constitutional principles help in forming ideal citizens.
4. The Students were informed that the copy of Constitution Book is available in Library. It showed the tendency of students to read.
5. The Preamble reading helped the students to understand the principles of the Constitution.

Photos :

Dr. Atul Kulkarni performing idol worship

Teachers and students taking the pledge

