Date: 20/02/2023 to 24/02/2023

Venue: MES Night College of Arts and Commerce

MES Night College of Arts and Commerce hosted a spectacular Cultural Extra-curricular in college, showcasing the talents and creativity of its students. The event featured a series of competitions including a Poster, Rangoli, Mehndi, Poem, and Photograph, drawing enthusiastic participation from students across

Poster Competition:

The Poster Competition was a vibrant display of artistic prowess, with participants employing a myriad of colors and themes to convey powerful messages. The posters explored diverse topics ranging from social issues to environmental concerns, showcasing the students' awareness and creativity.

Rangoli Competition:

Participant students exhibited exceptional skill and precision in creating traditional and contemporary rangolis, incorporating elements of symmetry, color harmony, and cultural motifs.

Mehndi Competition:

The Mehndi Competition celebrated the ancient art of henna application, with participants showcasing intricate designs and patterns on their hands. From classic to contemporary patterns, the competition highlighted the students' dexterity and creativity in this traditional form of body art.

Photograph Competition:

The Photograph Competition captured moments frozen in time, reflecting the unique perspectives and artistic sensibilities of the participants. From breathtaking landscapes to intimate portraits, the photographs exhibited a diverse range of subjects and styles, showcasing the students' talent behind the lens.

Poem Competition:

The Poem Competition echoed with the melodious rhythm of words and participants, with each poem offering a glimpse into the poet's innermost thoughts and feelings. Participants captivated the audience with their lyrical prowess, leaving a lasting impression with their evocative verses.

The extracurricular at MES Night College of Arts and Commerce was a resounding success, providing a platform for students to express themselves creatively and showcase their talents. The event not only fostered a spirit of camaraderie and collaboration but also served as a testament to the vibrant cultural landscape of the college community. Congratulations to all the participants for their exemplary contributions.
