Details of the Program:

MES Night College of Arts and Commerce, organized by the Maharashtra Education Society, held a special lecture program on "Guest Lecture on Preparation of various Competitive Examinations" on 4th January 2020, at 6:30 PM. The program began with the melodious singing of the Saraswati Mantra. It was conducted online via Google Meet under the guidance of Principal Dr. Atul Kulkarni, who was also present for the introductory program.

Prof. Shiv Kumar served as the coordinator for this special lecture. Mr. Vinod Dike the keynote speaker, provided a brief introduction before the audience and began his lecture.

Mr. Dike's lecture provided students with detailed information about the format of online examinations (MCQs) planned by various competitive examination agencies and bodies. He offered valuable guidance on preparing for online exams, including how to solve questions and other techniques to employ during the exam. He also informed students about the procedures for addressing network-related or other technical issues that may arise during online and competitive exams. In the concluding part of his lecture, he addressed various student questions about the exam and cleared any lingering doubts. A total of 40 students participated in the program.

Professor Amardeep Gurme expressed his gratitude for the program and acknowledged the coordination efforts of Prof. Shiv Kumar. The program was attended by the college principal, and special guidance was provided by Dr. Charusheela Birajdar and Prof. Shailesh Apte.

This special lecture program, organized to benefit students in their competitive exam preparation, successfully addressed their anxieties and concerns about the competitive exam process and declaration of results.

Program Outcomes: -

1. Students got in-depth information about various competitive examination formats from highly expert and experienced speakers in the field.
2. The fear of competitive exams in the minds of the students was removed and all their doubts were cleared.
3. The speaker also assured to provide any guidance regarding the competitive exam in the future as well.
