MES Night College of Arts and Commerce recently concluded its much-anticipated series of extracurricular competitions, featuring a diverse range of activities that brought students together in a spirit of camaraderie and friendly competition. From chess enthusiasts to creative artists and sports aficionados, the event had something for everyone.

- Chess Competition :

The chess competition, held from January 6 to January 21, showcased the strategic prowess of MES Night College's budding grandmasters. Participants engaged in intense matches, displaying a remarkable blend of skill and strategy. The atmosphere was charged with excitement as players battled it out for the coveted title.

- Mehndi and Rangoli:

Adding a touch of tradition to the festivities, the Mehndi and Rangoli competitions brought out the artistic flair of the students. All the participants showed creativity in the Rangoli & mehndi competition.

- Volleyball and Throw ball:

The sports arena witnessed spirited matches of volleyball and throw ball, with teams demonstrating exceptional teamwork and sportsmanship. The competitions not only provided a platform for healthy competition but also fostered a sense of unity among the students.

- Tug of War:

The Tug of War competition proved to be a highlight, with teams engaging in intense battles of strength and strategy. The event brought students together, promoting teamwork and perseverance. The spirited cheers from the sidelines added an extra layer of excitement to the tightly contested matches.

- Chess Competition:

The chess competition drew participants from all skill levels, from beginners to seasoned players. Each move was met with anticipation and applause, showcasing the intellectual prowess of MES Night College's chess enthusiasts. The tournament provided a platform for strategic thinking and healthy competition, fostering a love for the game among the students.

- Conclusion:

MES Night College's Extracurricular Competitions not only provided an opportunity for students to showcase their talents but also created a vibrant and inclusive atmosphere on campus. The success of the event was a testament to the college's commitment to fostering holistic development and a sense of community among its students. As the campus buzzed with the memories of these competitions, MES Night College looks forward to hosting more such events that enrich the student experience and contribute to the overall growth of its vibrant community.
