Format and Proceedings of the Program:-

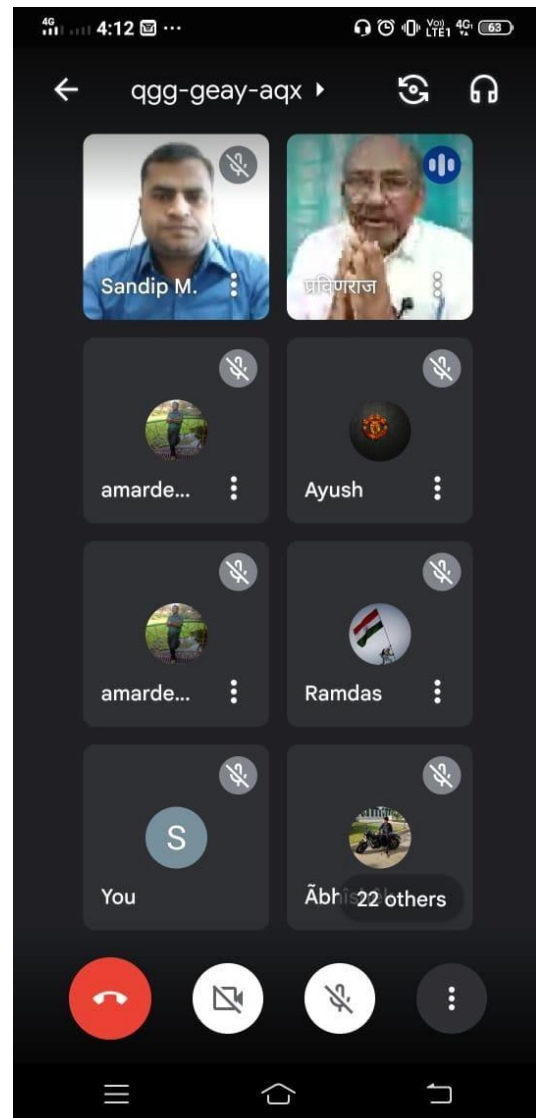

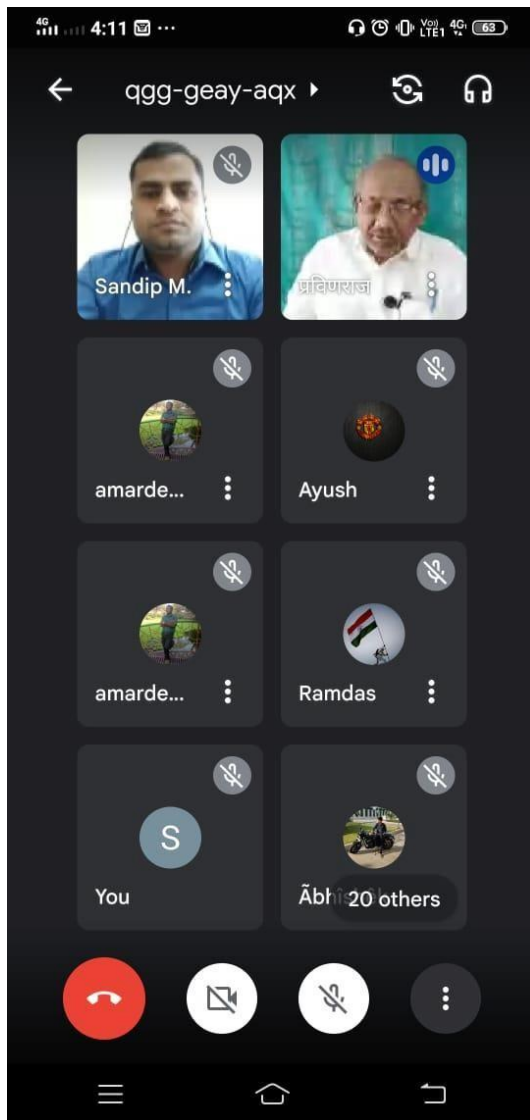

MES Night Collage of Arts and Commerce organized a virtual lecture by Dr. Avinash Avalgaonkar (Former Head of the Department of Marathi, S.P. Pune University, Pune) on 18th April 2022 under the theme "Vaachan Katta" on the Importance of Language and Literature. The program was started by Prof. Sandeep Khade and the keynote speakers were introduced by the Librarian Mrs. Smita Raut.

Dr. Avinash Avalgaonkar said the importance of language is, that reading helps to increase vocabulary. It also widens the circle of knowledge. Through reading one can also manage stress on the mind and personality development can be achieved through reading. Reading the best literature leads to personality development and cultivation of mind and books also give us knowledge on how to act and speak while living life. Therefore, our reading should be comprehensive.

Program Outcomes:

1. It helped the students to understand the importance of language and literature.
2. Students understood how to develop language through reading.
3. Helped to know that personality development takes place through language acquisition.
4. It helped to develop a reading culture.
5. Helped to develop interest in reading among students.
