

15 August 2024

MES Night College of Arts and Commerce and Abasaheb Garware College of Arts and Science, in collaboration with Garware College of Commerce, celebrated the 77th Independence Day on 15 August 2024 with great zeal and enthusiasm. The event aimed to honor freedom fighters' sacrifices and promote patriotism among students and faculty members.

Flag Hoisting Ceremony:

The event started at 7:45 AM with the flag hoisting ceremony. The Chief Guest, Dr. Vilas Ugale, Principal of Abasheb Garware College of Arts and Science, unfurled the national flag. He was accompanied by Dr. Sujata Adamuthe, Principal of MES Night College of Arts and Commerce, and Dr. Kishor D.Desarda, Principal of Garware College of Commerce. The entire gathering saluted the flag, followed by the singing of the national anthem, creating a proud and patriotic atmosphere.

The chief guest, Dr. Vilas Ugale, delivered an inspiring speech reflecting on the importance of freedom and the responsibilities that come with it. He highlighted the role of students in nation-building and encouraged them to uphold the values of unity and integrity.

Voter Pledge Activity:

At a special event, Dr. Umesh Bibwe, the Physical Director of Garware College of Commerce, introduced the voter pledge activity. They emphasized the importance of voting in a democracy, highlighting that every vote counts and discussing the impact of voter participation on the country's governance.

Dr. Umesh Bibwe administered the voter pledge, with students, faculty members, and staff standing together and raising their right hands to take the pledge. The pledge included a commitment to register as voters, participate in the electoral process, and encourage others to do the same. It stressed the responsibility of each citizen to contribute to a better and more accountable democracy.

Vote of Thanks:

The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by [Name], the event coordinator. They expressed gratitude to the faculty, students, and guests for their participation and support. The collaboration between MES Night College of Arts and Commerce and Garware College of Commerce was appreciated, and a commitment was made to continue such joint initiatives in the future.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Umesh Bibwe, the event coordinator. They expressed gratitude to the faculty, students, and guests for their participation and support. The Independence Day celebration at MES Night College of Arts and Commerce, in collaboration with Garware College of Commerce, was a success and included a voter pledge activity, emphasizing the importance of democratic participation. This initiative celebrated India's independence and empowered students and faculty to contribute to the nation's governance.

