Awareness of Anti-Ragging

MES Night College of Arts and Commerce recently organized a short film screening on anti-ragging. The event aimed to educate students about the harmful effects of ragging and promote a safe and inclusive campus environment. It was part of the college's ongoing efforts to raise awareness about respecting peers and maintaining a culture of dignity and support.

The event took place during the evening session on 16/08/2024, a Friday, and was organized by Prof. Shiv Kumar Rao. The event coincided with the college's regular class hours to ensure maximum student participation.

The film was developed by UGC & was shown to a group of students with BA and BCom, particularly targeting the first-year students who are most vulnerable to ragging. The discussion was held between students & teachers about how to avoid ragging & how to take help from the teachers & Anti-ragging committee in case of ragging .

The short film depicted real-life scenarios of ragging incidents and their devastating impact on students' mental and physical health. It also highlighted the legal consequences of engaging in ragging activities, reinforcing the college's zero-tolerance policy.

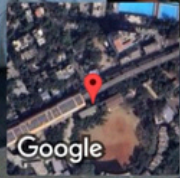

Outcomes

1. Increased Awareness
2. Student Engagement
3. Commitment to Safety
4. Positive Feedback

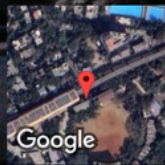

The anti-ragging short film screening at MES Night College of Arts and Commerce was a significant step in promoting a culture of respect and safety on campus. By engaging students in meaningful discussions and providing them with the knowledge to combat ragging, the college has reinforced its dedication to the well-being of its student community.
