Book Exhibition

21st October 2023, MES Night College of Arts and Commerce, Librarian Smita Raut organized a Book Exhibition to celebrate the auspicious occasion of Sarasvati Poojan. The event was held in the college Library from 1:00 PM to 7:00 PM, attracting students, faculty, and book enthusiasts.

The objective of the program:

The primary aim of the exhibition was to encourage students to explore various genres of literature, promote reading habits, and provide access to a wide range of academic and non-academic resources. Sarasvati Poojan, symbolizing knowledge and wisdom, was a perfect backdrop for this event.

The book exhibition was a grand success, creating an inspiring environment for learning and exploration. It not only provided students with access to a wide range of resources but also encouraged the habit of reading beyond their academic syllabus. The college's initiative to hold the event on the occasion of Sarasvati Poojan brought a deeper cultural and intellectual significance to the exhibition, making it a meaningful experience for all attendees.

Outcomes of the Book Exhibition Program:

1. Increased Interest in Reading:

Students were inspired to cultivate reading habits by exploring various books available at the exhibition.

2. Enhanced Awareness of Library Resources:

Students became more familiar with the books and materials available in the college library, improving their utilization of library resources.

3. Cultural and Academic Enrichment:

The exhibition provided an opportunity to honor the tradition of Sarasvati Poojan while promoting academic growth.

4. Community Engagement:

The event fostered interaction among students, faculty, and library staff, creating a stronger academic community.

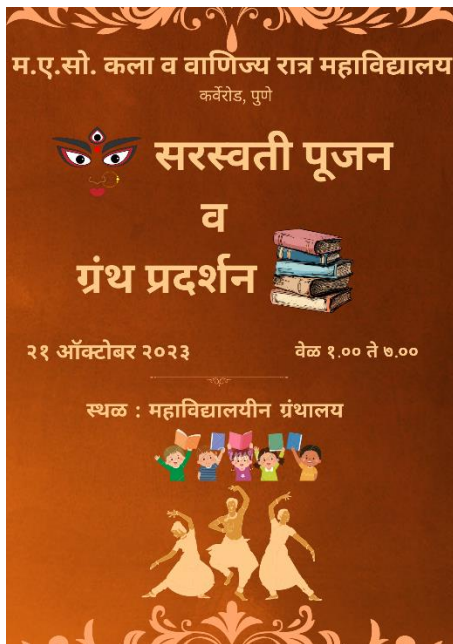

5. Exploration of New Genres:

Students discovered books outside their usual areas of interest, broadening their literary horizons.

6. Knowledge Sharing:

The event created a platform for students to discuss and recommend books, leading to intellectual exchanges.
