

Maharashtra Education Society
MES Night College of Arts and Commerce
Karve Road, Pune

Marathi Bhasha Din

Date: 27th February 2024

Venue: Class Room NG94

Guest Speaker: Prof. Sandip Khade

The Marathi Bhasha Din was organized by MES Night College of Arts and Commerce to honor the rich heritage of the Marathi language and inspire students to embrace and preserve it. The day is celebrated to commemorate the birth anniversary of the noted Marathi poet, V. V. Shirwadkar, popularly known as Kusumagraj. It aims to promote the use and understanding of the Marathi language in literature, arts, and day-to-day communication.

The event aimed to:

1. Foster an appreciation for the cultural significance of the Marathi language.
2. Encourage students to explore Marathi literature and poetry.
3. Develop pride in the students for their linguistic heritage.
4. Provide insights into the relevance of the Marathi language in modern education and career paths.

Event Details:

The event was graced by the esteemed guest speaker, Prof. Sandip Khade, who is known for his contribution to Marathi literature. Prof. Sandip Khade spoke about the evolution of the Marathi language and literature over the years, stressing the importance of preserving regional languages in an increasingly globalized world.

Prof. Sandip Khade also conducted a brief session where he recited a few selected works of renowned Marathi poets and engaged the students in discussing how regional languages shape one's identity and worldview.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks, acknowledging the contribution of Prof. Sandip Khade to the success of the Marathi Bhasha Din celebration.

