Date: Wednesday, 3rd January 2024

Time: 5:00 PM

Venue: Library

Objective of the Program

- To inspire students to carry forward the legacy of Savitribai Phule's work.
- To inform about this day, known as Women's Liberation Day.
- To highlight Savitribai Phule's contributions.

Program Details

On the occasion of Savitribai Phule Jayanti, MES Arts and Commerce Night College organized a program on 3rd January 2024 at 5:00 PM under the guidance of Principal Dr. Atul Kulkarni.

Mrs. Smita Raut offered a garland to her portrait and performed the ritual worship. Mrs. Akshada Deodhar, Mr. Amardeep Gurme, and Mr. Shivkumar Rao offered flowers and participated in the worship.

Students were also present at the event. Teachers and non-teaching staff engaged in discussions with students, reviewing Savitribai Phule's contributions.

The outcome of the Program

- Helped facilitate dialogue on the subject of women's liberation.
- Contributed to advancing the idea of women's empowerment through education.
- Inspired students to continue the educational legacy of Savitribai Phule.

The celebration of Savitribai Phule Jayanti focuses on her contributions to women's liberation and education—the program aimed to inspire students to uphold these values.
