

MAHARASHTRA EDUCATION SOCIETY

MES NIGHT COLLEGE OF

ARTS AND COMMERCE

Affiliated to Government of Maharashtra & Savitribai Phule Pune University
NAAC Accreditation 'B' Grade (1st Cycle)

REPORT ON YOUTH DISCUSSION PROGRAM BY SAKAL NEWSPAPER YIN

DATE: 14TH NOVEMBER 2024

TIME: 3:00 PM

VENUE: AISSMS IOIT, PUNE STATION

A vibrant discussion program on the topic "Expectations of Youth Regarding Vidhan Sabha Voting" was organized by the Sakal Newspaper Youth Inspirators Network (YIN). The event aimed to foster leadership qualities and encourage active participation among the young generation in democratic processes.

This program brought together dynamic youth from various institutions, including MES Night College of Arts and Commerce, represented by three enthusiastic students—Rinku Ranawat (TYBCOM), Riddhi Deshpande (TYBCOM), and Krishna Tupe (FYBA).

OBJECTIVES OF THE PROGRAM:

- To understand the perspectives and expectations of young voters concerning Vidhan Sabha elections.
- To inspire leadership and responsibility in shaping the future of the nation.
- To bridge the gap between the aspirations of youth and the democratic process.

Highlights:

- Youth Perspectives: The participants shared their expectations about transparency, youth-centric policies, and inclusivity in governance. They emphasized the importance of informed voting and active engagement with political processes.
- Interactive Discussions: The forum encouraged open dialogue, allowing students to voice their opinions on reforms, accessibility of information, and the role of technology in elections.
- Leadership Development: By participating in such discussions, students gained insights into leadership and critical thinking, essential for becoming proactive citizens.

The contributions of the MES Night College students were particularly noteworthy, reflecting their awareness and enthusiasm for constructive change. Their participation underscored the importance of youth involvement in democratic conversations and reinforced the event's purpose.

The outcome of the Program

- Enhanced Awareness: Participants gained deeper insights into the importance of voting and the responsibilities of the electorate.
- Leadership Development: Students displayed excellent leadership skills by articulating their views confidently.

