Guru Pournima Celebration

Date: 10th July 2025

Time: 6:00 PM to 6:30 PM

Venue: Classroom NG94A

Under the insightful guidance of Principal Dr. Sujata Adamuthe, MES Night College of Arts and Commerce organized a heartfelt Guru Pournima program for students on 10th July 2025, to honor and express gratitude towards teachers and mentors.

Objective of the Program:

- To instill the traditional Indian values of respect and reverence towards gurus (teachers).
- To celebrate the teacher-student bond and highlight the role of educators in shaping individual lives and society.
- To provide students with a reflective platform to understand the significance of Guru Pournima in Indian culture.

Program Details :

The program was commenced by the puja of Sarasvati. Dr. Sujata Adamuthe, Principal of the college, addressed the gathering and highlighted the importance of Guru Pournima in Indian tradition. She elaborated on how this day marks the birth anniversary of Sage Vyasa, the compiler of the Vedas and author of the Mahabharata. She explained that Guru Pournima is a day of devotion and reverence to the teachers who guide us from darkness to light and contribute to our intellectual and personal growth.

The program concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks by Prof. Amardeep Gurme, who acknowledged the efforts of all staff and students involved in making the event a success.

Outcomes of the Program:

- Students gained a deeper appreciation of the guru-shishya (teacher-student) tradition.
- The event fostered a sense of respect, emotional connection, and gratitude toward teachers.
- It helped in building a positive and value-based learning environment within the college.
- Strengthened the teacher-student bond, promoting mutual respect and motivation.

The celebration was a meaningful tribute to all mentors who guide students towards knowledge, wisdom, and character-building.
