Topic: Career
Opportunities and Life in the Merchant Navy

MES Night College of Arts and Commerce organized an inspirational and career-focused guest lecture on 21st January 2025, delivered by Mr. Govind Jadhav, an accomplished alumnus from the Arts faculty and a professional in the Merchant Navy.

The session was aimed at creating awareness among students about career options beyond conventional fields, with a special focus on Merchant Navy as a profession

Key Highlights of the Session:

- Mr. Govind Jadhav shared his personal journey from a student of MES Night College to joining the Merchant Navy, offering students a relatable and motivating perspective.
- He explained the eligibility criteria, training requirements, recruitment process, and growth opportunities in the Merchant Navy.
- Students were informed about the different roles on board, types of ships, and global exposure involved in this career.
- The speaker also discussed the challenges and rewards of life at sea, including discipline, adaptability, teamwork, and resilience.

Outcomes of the Program:

- Students gained valuable insights into a lesser-known yet lucrative career path.
- The lecture sparked curiosity among Arts students about non-traditional career fields.
- Many students interacted with Mr. Jadhav during the Q&A session, seeking guidance and clarification on how to prepare for such a career.

The session boosted career confidence and awareness, especially for those aspiring to work internationally
