Program Details:

MES Night College of Arts and Commerce organized an Induction Program for the newly enrolled FYBA and FYBCOM students on 12th July 2025 at 5:00 PM in the AV Hall. The program began with saraswati poojan, a warm welcome to the students and a brief introduction to the college's academic and cultural atmosphere.

Date: 12th July 2025

Time: 5:00 PM

Venue: AV Hall

Principal Dr. Sujata Adamuthe delivered the keynote speech, emphasizing the value of education, discipline, and active student participation in academic and co-curricular activities. She also motivated students to develop a goal-oriented approach from the beginning of their journey. She elaborates about introducing Anti-Ragging Cell and other cells, the objective and function of IQAC, and ICC, Grievance Redressal Cell.

Prof. Shiv Kumar Rao introduced the course structure and syllabus of FYBA and FYBCOM, guiding students on credit systems, evaluation methods, and internal assessment processes.

Prof. Amardeep Gurme provided a detailed explanation of NEP 2020 and how the new education policy aims at holistic and multidisciplinary education. He highlighted the importance of skill-based learning, flexibility in subject selection, and vocational components introduced under the new curriculum.

Subject teachers Dr. Somnath Gunaware, Dr. Ashok Kamble, and Prof. Dadasaheb Mager gave a brief introduction to the subjects they would be teaching and shared tips on how to excel in their respective areas.

Mrs. Smita Raut, College Librarian, introduced the students to the library system, including the use of OPAC, availability of physical and digital resources, and guidelines for borrowing books.

Mrs. Akshata Deodhar explained the administrative process of the college, covering aspects such as admission documentation, scholarships, fee payment, exam form filling, and ID card distribution.

Outcomes of the Program:

- Students became familiar with the academic structure and expectations of the college.
- Awareness was created about NEP 2020 and its relevance to their academic path.
- Students gained insights into the available resources like the library and administration support.
- A sense of belonging and confidence was instilled among the first-year students to begin their higher education journey with clarity and motivation.

The Induction Program proved to be a significant step in building a student-friendly academic environment.
