Library Orientation Program

Date: 17th July 2025
Time: 6:30 PM
Venue: College Library

Under the guidance of Principal Dr. Sujata Adamuthe, MES Night College of Arts and Commerce organized a Library Orientation Program for FYBCom and FYBA students on 17th July 2025 at 6:30 PM in the College Library. The session was conducted by Librarian Mrs. Smita Raut with the aim of introducing students to the library facilities, resources, and services available to them throughout their academic journey.

Objectives of the Program:

- To familiarize first-year students with the structure and functioning of the college library.
- To explain how to access various academic resources, including books, journals, and digital material.
- To introduce students to the OPAC (Online Public Access Catalogue) system.
- To promote reading habits and research culture among students.

Highlights of the Session:

- Mrs. Smita Raut gave a detailed tour of the library sections such as Reference, Circulation, Periodicals, and Digital Corner.
- Demonstration of how to search and locate books using the OPAC system.
- Explanation of borrowing rules, library timings, and code of conduct.
- Interactive Q&A session where students clarified their doubts regarding library usage.

Outcomes of the Program:

- Students gained confidence in using the library independently.
- They became aware of the academic support system provided by the library.
- The session sparked interest in reading and research among newly admitted students.

The session was well-received by the students, who expressed their enthusiasm and gratitude. The orientation program effectively laid the foundation for a positive academic experience by integrating library use into their daily learning process.
