

“Seva-Swachhta Week”

Date: 1st October 2025

Venue: Khanduji Baba Vitthal Mandir, Deccan

As part of the nationwide observance of “Seva-Swachhta Week” held from 17th September to 2nd October 2025, MES Night College of Arts and Commerce organized a cleanliness drive on 1st October 2025 at Khanduji Baba Vitthal Mandir, Deccan.

Faculty members Prof. Amardeep Gurme, Prof. Shivkumar Rao, Librarian Smita Raut, and non-teaching staff member Kumar Panjlar actively participated along with the students of the college. The participants cleaned the temple premises by collecting waste and spreading awareness among the public about maintaining cleanliness in their surroundings.

Objective:

- To promote the values of cleanliness and hygiene among students and society.
- To encourage students to take part in community service activities.
- To create awareness about environmental responsibility and social commitment.

Outcome:

- The students developed a sense of social responsibility, environmental consciousness, and teamwork.
- The cleanliness drive fostered community engagement and inspired others to contribute towards maintaining a clean and healthy environment.
- The activity successfully reinforced the importance of “Cleanliness is next to Godliness” in daily life.

"Seva-Swachhhta Week"

